Lots of different designs and colors. No repeating cards 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Nice cards! By 57cupcake I'm on Postcrossing, so I'm always looking for cards to send to people. I also love depression glass, so I get the joy of looking at the images before I send them on to someone else to enjoy. Quality paper, and plenty of room for messages on the back.

Forty colorful images explore the wonderful range of Depression Glass in a variety of colors and patterns that are widely sought after by collectors. These beautiful perforated postcards are ready to be detached and mailed to friends and family, or to frame and hang in your home. At only $14.95, the cards cost less than 40 cents apiece. This is the perfect gift for any Depression Glass enthusiast.

About the Author Barbara and Jim Mauzy have been collectors and dealers of Depression Glass and kitchenware from the 1920-1950s for almost twenty years. Together they have authored numerous books pertaining to vintage kitchen collectibles and the kitchens our mothers and grandmothers worked in.
