ParkerWonderful book! Just what I was looking for. The author gave me the confidence to continue my fantasy dolls made from Art Deco Boudoir dolls! Love it. And, the company I purchased it from was very fast in shipping. 5 stars for sure!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Inspirational and challengingBy Caroline M.

AlexanderThere is something here for anyone interested in these wonder and slightly decadent dolls! Experienced doll makers will appreciate the authors careful examination of the various styles of doll, and love the final project where they get to try this out on their own doll. Doll collectors will find the cataloging system used of value, and the hints on repairing and restoring these beauties will have reborners expanding their horizons. As usual, the photography is wonderful, so much eye candy, and all of it relevant to the subject. I purchased this on a whim, and have been totally enchanted, as always, by Ms Oroyans style and approach and her encyclopedic knowledge of her subject. Even if you never make one of these dolls, the book is a pleasure to read and look at. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful buy for anyone. By Jeri This book is top of the line. Everything I have seen by Susanna Oroyan is wonderful. I now have all 4 of her books. I wish she could still be with us to produce more. I bought one for me and one as a gift for my friend.

Rediscover old sentimental favourite dolls from the Art Deco era with doll maker Susanna Oroyan. Here are flappers and vamps, co-eds and clowns, bed dolls, even accessories - more than a dozen in all that are easy to make and embellish. Next, Oroyan offers a comprehensive history of dolls and doll making in the years between the World Wars and shows how to collect, repair and restore old dolls, then create one's own art deco beauty. Filled with full-colour photography, "Dolls of the Art Deco Era" is a gallery of creative inspiration for collectors, crafters and doll lovers everywhere.

About the Author Susanna Oroyan is the author of four other books on dollmaking. She has created over 500 dolls since 1972 and has appeared on HGTV's Carol Duvall Show. She lives in Eugene, OR.
