decorations, but I did not find all of them easy to follow. The illustrations are hand-drawn and do not do justice to the author's intent. Perhaps the author could get away with drawings of some of the steps in creating her work, but even there I think coloured photos would have worked better. The finished works definitely would have been better illustrated in colour photos. Also, the author lists a number of plants and flowers to use in the pieces, but there are no photos for readers, like me, who are not familiar with all of them. I wanted to see what the plants and flowers looked like, to give me an idea of what the finished pieces would look like. I know I could look these plants up online, but the purpose of buying a "How-To" book is to have everything laid out. I got the book for free, but I did not find it useful for my purposes. I don't think the book is ready to be sold for money at this time. It has potential, but without photos, I don't think most readers would find it helpful. I hate giving a negative review because I think the author did put a lot of effort into this book, but the execution just does not work at this time. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Disappointed By Elaine Lammlein I expected better quality arrangement ideas. The design instructions were vague at best. I would not recommend purchasing the book. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful, quick and to the point. By Customer I enjoyed this, a simple and quick read. The designs were well thought out and explained so anyone could do them. I plan to substitute using what I have on hand. I will look for more of her books.

Transport yourself into the creative, fragrant, and colorful world of flower arrangements and in 30 minutes you will have created a beautiful Christmas decoration for your home! Professional florist Mathylde Zahry has dedicated her debut to the most beautiful holiday season of the whole year Advent and Christmas. By following 6 simple and practical sets of step-by-step instructions, you will make: an advent wreath, a wreath for the front door, a Christmas floral arrangement for the holiday table, impressive Christmas candle holders... Each set of instructions is divided into three parts. Like a recipe in a cookbook, the first part has a list of things that you will need. The second part is a description of the preparation phase and the third is the actual directions. If you carefully follow the instructions, in thirty minutes you will end up with the same fantastic result like the one you see in the picture. And finally you can invite the whole family and all your friends so they can admire you and your work of art! It's all so simple and fast, isn't it?

About the Author Mathylde Zahry is an experienced florist, who has owned a chain of flower shops. Currently, she wants to share with you her practical knowledge from the field of floristry through a series of books with quick and easy instructions for making floral decorations and arrangements.
