About the Author In the early 1980s Margaret Wilson began painting after signing up for a course at a local craft store and has continued ever since. Robyn Thomas began her career by selling children's clothing and stuffed toys at local craft shows. She then collaborated with her husband in making wooden toys. After Margaret retired from teaching, she helped organize the Michigan Grapevine Decorative Artist chapter of the Society of Decorative Painters. Through this chapter she met Robyn Thomas and they formed the Sugar Brushes. The two travel the country, attending conventions and teaching classes.
