Kelsy Eason : Micro-Macrame Jewelry: Stylish Designs for Everyday Wear before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Micro-Macrame Jewelry: Stylish Designs for Everyday Wear:

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Cute, wearable designs. By Gail layne As a beginner, I felt this was the best book on the subject that I have purchased. The instructions were detailed but not verbose and the demonstrations were very easy to follow. I especially liked that the designs were not some mad max design that took four years of college and 42 hours to complete. You can both finish them and not keep them under glass after you have. Did I like every design? No, but I didn't expect to, this is the author's esthetic, not mine. However, most of the style elements could be easily swapped out if you cared to. The only problem I had with the book was the hanging method of 'Whispering Bamboo'. A head pin could have been placed in the hole of the bead and a simple loop made to allievated the stress of hanging the piece from one of the cords. This has already altered the drape of the piece and will certainly affect the longevity. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Not too bad, but not great either. By dewlap. Not as many interesting designs, but there are a few that I will probably try to make. A lot of it is pretty unexceptional. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars. By Dawn. The book was in excellent condition. Great patterns for micro-macrame.
