I opened "My Mother's Quilts: Devotions of Love, Legacy, Family and Faith" by Ramona Pope Richards on Thursday morning and started reading. I'm reminded of my own family and quilts, crafted by Aunt Hazel, Aunt Connie, Mama Rose, and Granny. The devotionals are short stories featuring family quilts, comparable in style to Rick Bragg, but I prefer Ramona's style because it's told from the female perspective. I love Rick Bragg's stories, so that might tell you how much I appreciate Ramona's work of art. I'm keeping a copy for myself and adding one to the library's collection. It's rare for me to buy books because I have access to just about anything through the library, but I'm keeping this one for my bedside table. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Quilting Comfort By Kindle Customer This was a mother's day gift for my quilting mother. The stories are touching and the pictures are beautiful. This is a great read for those who love quilting and inspirational even if you aren't. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four Stars By Judy Lee I enjoy the book so much I purchased a second copy to give to a friend.

Inspired by thirty family heirloom quilts, each devotion shares the enduring legacy of faith, family and tradition in our lives.
