I loooooove the artwork and so do my kids! Thank you for sharing your talent and for compiling your work! I like that there are free printables on the author's website (danielmitsui (dot) com), but this book and the Rosary book are worth every penny!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Top quality.By toshi stationSo awesome. Great art from a great liturgical artist.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. i found the coloring book fun although the saints having all oriental features was confusingBy Lawrence BasfordBeing a product of Catholic schools, i found the coloring book fun although the saints having all oriental features was confusing.

Inspiration. Creativity. Calm. Experience all three as you focus on coloring hand-drawn illustrations of the saints by renowned Catholic artist Daniel Mitsui. Following on the heels of Daniel Mitsui's first adult coloring book, The Mysteries of the Rosary, The Saints contains thirty elaborate images, including Mary and Joseph, John the Baptist, Peter, Paul, Francis, Lucy, and Brendan in the style of medieval illustrated manuscripts. Enter into a contemplative space as you color Mitsui's beautiful images of saints and the elements they are associated with from the early Church and Middle Ages. You can use any type of media to color Brendan the Navigator, styled in traditional Celtic, St. Peter the Apostle, following the traditional Chinese style. Careful attention to coloring these delightful illustrations of the saints is a wonderful way to reflect on their lives and virtues.

"Daniel Mitsui's images offer something new while remaining rooted in timeless ideals." --Zoe Romanowsky, Catholic writer, blogger, and lifestyle editor at Aleteia "Daniel Mitsui's beautiful renderings are sure to inspire the mystic artist hidden inside all who use this inspiring coloring book." --Mickey McGrath, O.S.F.S., Author of Good St. John XXIII "Adult coloring books can be a powerful portal into creative meditation. These images are beautiful as well as inspiring, inviting you to ponder their themes through both inner reflection and active illumination." --Christine Valters Paintner, Author of Illuminating the Way About the Author Artist Daniel Mitsui specializes in ink drawing. His meticulously detailed creations--created entirely by hand on paper or vellum--are held in collections worldwide. Since his baptism into the Catholic Church in 2004, he has focused most of his art on religious subjects. Mitsui is a 2004 graduate of Dartmouth College (cum laude and senior fellow), where he studied drawing, oil painting, etching, lithography, wood carving, bookbinding, and film animation. The Vatican commissioned Mitsui to illustrate a new edition of the Roman Pontifical in 2011. In 2012, he established Millefleur Press, an imprint for publishing fine books and broadsides of his artwork and typography. He is a prolific designer of custom bookplates. Born in Georgia and raised in Illinois, Mitsui lives in Chicago with his wife, Michelle, and their three children.
